

Hayman's 1820

- The world's first ever gin liqueur
- Developed by Christopher and James Hayman, direct descendants of James Burrough, who in 1820 created Beefeater's Gin
- A classic London distilled gin sweetened to create a gin that can be served neat or as a versatile cocktail base spirit.
- Similar to an 'Old Tom's Gin'
- A smooth aperitif or after dinner drink served chilled or over ice
- Best New Brand 2004- Drinks International
- Gold Medal for white spirits – International Cocktail Challenge
- Aimed at gin and liqueur drinkers
- 40% abv
- Gencod: 5021692650026
- Cases 4 X 50cl
- Pallet 210 cases X 4

Distributed in France by Saphy International